Blackboard Learning System

Students in the MSE program will use the Blackboard Learning System, which is designed to assist faculty and students in online instructional programs. Blackboard is a web-based environment in which students are able to access course materials and communicate with other students and faculty. General information concerning the Blackboard is available from http://blackboard.fullerton.edu and includes useful information on how to use Blackboard, an FAQ document, and other information that you might find useful.

Blackboard Login Instructions

1. Open a web browser and go to http://my.fullerton.edu. You should now be at the page below. To log into Blackboard, you will need your Campus Wide ID number (CWID) and password. If you do not know your CWID, you can obtain it from http://webcert.fullerton.edu/csufcwid/Index.aspx. If you do not know your password, you need to contact Admissions & Records at (714) 278 - 2370. Enter your CWID and password into the appropriate fields then click on “Login” to continue.
2. Click on “Blackboard” to continue.

3. Click on ‘My Fullerton Blackboard Classes’ to continue.
4. The screen below is the main menu page for the Blackboard Learning System. Further Blackboard documentation, including a user manual, is available at http://blackboard.fullerton.edu/student/documentation.htm. If you have problems logging into Blackboard, please contact the help desk at (714) 278 – 7777 for assistance.
